Time, 12%, 25, 50%, 1:16%.

Winner—Blk. f, by Pontiac—Poncho.
Went to post at 2:30. At post 10 minutes. Start fair. Won easily; second the same. Petra II. waited on Judge Wardell to the stretch when she pulled to the front with ease. Judge Wardell beat the gate and was favored by the track conditions, otherwise he would probably have finished behind some others in the race. Robert Metcalf closed a big gap and was running strongly at the finish. Billionaire ran a fair race. Marothem displayed a good turn of speed but tired badly in the last quarter. He has been running fast trials. In Shot performed poorly. Mixer showed some speed and should be watched. He is a very good looker. Petra II. was bid up from $1,000 to $1,500 and bought in.

Scratched—24946 Peeler, 106; 24946 Bluff, 106; (25057) Oliver Mc., 104; 24946 East Kelston, 103; 24577 Gertrude Elliott, 95; 25021 Gink, 95; 22486 Historian, 95; 18472 Carl Kahler, 88.

Overweights—Judge Wardell, 2 pounds; Marothem, 4; In Shot, 2.
Petra II., show, out. Judge Wardell, show, 7 to 10. Robert Metcalf, show, 4 to 1. Marothem, show, 2 to 5.

Time, 1:00%.

Winner—B. f, by Henry Young—Laurel.
Went to post at 3:05. At post 6 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second driving. Laodice appeared to be running very easily throughout and the result was never in doubt. She is a grand looker and though her victory may have been due in a measure to the mud today there is hardly any doubt of her being a superior class filly. Red Damsel ran up to her consistent record in such going. Carroll D. ran straight enough today, yet his roguish tendencies cost him second place. Misleader was outrun in the first three furlongs and appeared hopelessly out of the race when coming up the hill, but he is a stayer and closed with a tremendous burst of speed. Margie S. came fast at the end. Lighthunt, a good looker, put up a very fair effort. Halberdier was eased at the end after showing plenty of speed.

Scratched—24947 Friar Tabor, 108; 24947 O'Hagen, 100; 24947 C. Rosenfeld, 100.
Laodice, show, 2 to 5. Red Damsel, show, 7 to 10. Carroll D., show, evens. Misleader, show, 2 to 5.

Time, 12, 23%, 48%, 1:15%, 1:22%.

Winner—Blk. c, by Charaxus—Meta Russell.
Went to post at 3:35. At post 3 minutes. Start fair. Won easily; second the same. Colonel Padden outclassed the field and the result was never in doubt. He is a beautiful actioned colt. Animosity finished fast but was lucky to fall into second position at the finish, although Brandy Smash collapsed right at the end, due to his early effort to beat the winner. The colt moreover met with costly interference at the half. Barbara Frietchie is a promising filly. She showed a brilliant burst of speed, even though palpably short. In for $1,000 Colonel Padden was bid up to $3,000 and bought in.
Scratched—25022 Lanceman, 106; 24773 Glade Run, 104; 24672 Himself, 104; 24577 Gertrude Elliott, 95; 24985 Snark, 95; 24946 Admiral Dewey, 91.
No show betting.

Time, 24%, 49%, 1:16%, 1:43%.

Winner—Ch. c, by Henry of Navarre—Lack a Daisy.
Went to post at 4:05. At post 3 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second the same. Lanceman was pocketed to the stretch and bumped his way through and was going away at the end. He has improved so much with each race that, taking his grand looks into consideration, he has a chance to develop into a stake horse. Seminole was easily best of the others, ran all around big field at the three-quarters in a brilliant burst of speed and proved a resolute finisher. All Saints closed a tremendous gap and ran a good race. Satire ran a very fair race and should win in more moderate company. Contend fails to sustain the promise of his two-year-old form. Princeton Girl showed early speed.

Overweights—Satire, 2 pounds; Contend, 5; Thoroughbred, 5; Taveta, 2; Tom Kenny, 2; Princeton Girl, 2.
Lanceman, show, 2 to 5. Seminole, show, evens. All Saints, show, 5 to 1. Contend, show, 4 to 5.

Time, 11, 23, 48%, 1:14%, 1:22%.

Winner—Ch. c, by Kantaka—Genevieve.
Went to post at 4:35. At post 15 minutes. Start straggling. Won easily; second driving. King Pepper spoiled four good starts and finally got away flying. His speed was phenomenal and nothing could get near him. He ran in blinkers for the first time. The Rhymer, outrun early and inadequately handled by his light rider, finished very strongly and was a good horse today. Belle of Lexington ran a fast race and fought it out at the end with unusual gameness. Isia was opposed to speed so much superior to his own that his defeat was a foregone conclusion. King Lief broke slowly and was used up in long breakaways while at the post. King Bramble was hopelessly outrun and outclassed on a speed basis. Mesmerist has been doing well in his work but his race was only fair and nothing near what was expected from the once greatest of all two-year-olds.

Scratched—21175 Blues, 110; 25025 All Gold, 100; 24884 Dr. Barlow, 100; 25023 Princess Pepper, 96; 25053 Alsike, 86.

King Pepper, show, evens. The Rhymer, show, 8 to 5. Belle of Lexington, show, 8 to 5. King Lief, show, 3 to 5. Mesmerist, show, evens.

25097 SIXTH RACE—1 1-8 Miles. (On Withers Course.) $750 added. 3-year-olds and upward. Handicap.

Time, 26%, 51%, 1:18, 1:51%, 1:57.

Winner—Ch. h, by Farandole—Jennie S.
Went to post at 5:15. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won easily; second driving. Rafaello is in the most wonderful form of his career. He trailed under restraint until in the last furlong when he pulled to the front without much effort. Latson ran a very good race, finished strong and is in fine condition and winning form. First Whip was in judiciously handled in setting the pace and, moreover, disliked the going. His showing under these drawbacks was extra good. Alsike is honest and consistent, but was outclassed.

Scratched—(22189) Withers, 109; (25056) Hammock, 108; 25057 Balloon, 86.

Rafaello, show, out. Latson, show, out. First Whip, show, 2 to 5.

Winner—Br. f, Helicon—Leita Kent.
Went to post at 2:35. At post 16 minutes. Start good. The first three were driving. Lady Kent was lucky in getting through a tight hole at the eighth pole. Jena was pocketed and bumped to the last sixteenth. She came fast on the end. Annie Lauretta was stopping every jump at the finish. Coralais quit when put to a drive. Flying Bird showed her usual desire to go to the front, but retired early. Come Quick was slow to get in motion, skinned the rail all the way, but continually ran into pockets and interferences.

Scratched—24989 Al Lone, 110; 25038 River Princess, 107; 24994 Ahamo, 107.

Winner—B. c, by Tenny—Bayadere.
Went to post at 3:19. At post 7 minutes. Start good. Won ridden out; next three driving hard. King Ford skinned the rail all the way and finished strongest. Was the best. McLanahan hung a bit in the last sixteenth. When he pulled up he appeared to have a tender mouth. Tom Crabb finished gamely, but his size is against him. Winnora was on her bad behavior at the post, when she threw her boy and failed to show the speed of her last race.

Overweights—Full Dinner Paul, 3 pounds.

ROBERT WADDELL AGAIN.

"Pa" Bradley's Derby candidate Robert Wadnell was again the hero at Worth yesterday,
and the handsome way in which the unsexed son of Aloha—Virgie, both of which raced on Chicago tracks in their day, disposed of Operator was pleasing to those who hold tickets on the Bradley gelding at a long price in the American Derby.

Robert Waddell was asked to concede Operator, "Hardy" Durham's Derby hope, 10 pounds and gelding allowance in a special race at one mile, and this he did in good style. Operator is no slouch of a colt himself, but in no way can he be compared with Robert Waddell.
This pair, each ridden to perfection, gave the enormous crowd a grand run for its money, and racing like a team from flag fall to finish they were cheered to the echo every inch of the way.
Operator, who had the rail, held a small advantage a quarter part of the journey but when the real test came he was compelled to give way gracefully to his superior. The race although not a fast one was a good one and most pleasing to the eye.

It was strictly favorites day and the ring must have lost a ton of money, as five first choices and one second choice won.

The Hawthorne crowd backed Impromptu from "soda to hock," and the colt with little
J. Martin up "delivered the goods" handsomely.

The Rush, who seems to be about the best sprinter at the track, beat the field opposed to him with ease and incidentally clipped a fifth of a second from the track record for six furlongs.

The weather was clear and cool, the track
fast and, what has become a usual occurrence,
an enormous crowd was on hand.

Harry Stover, with Kenilworth and the rest of his stable, will ship to Toronto today.

staggering and all out at the finish. Anxious ran an improved race. Juniper stopped suddenly after showing a nice turn of speed. Julius Werner pulled up lame. Otis Harlan is a very bad actor at the post. His actions delayed the start. He was pulled up in the stretch.

Went to post at 5:20. Off at the first break to a good start. Won driving; second easily.
Rice showed an abundance of speed and appeared to have the race at his mercy when on the backstretch, but John McElroy got to his throat latch when turning for home, and brought him to a drive, but after outgeneraled Berman at the end. John McElroy ran to his best form

Winner—B. f. by Wagner—Linka.
Went to post at 2:20. At post 6 minutes. Start good. Won well in hand; second and third driving. The Esmond took the shortest route, was lucky throughout and under a strong ride came away without the least effort at the end. She could have run much faster had she been urged. Gracchi broke running, showed a lot of speed and hung on gamely at the end. She is a fair sort of a filly. Arigato, after appearing to be hopelessly beaten on the far turn, came extremely fast through the stretch under severe punishment. Hat Mitchell was staggering and out to the last ounce at the end. Haydon bolted on the stretch turn, otherwise he would have been a keen contender. As it was he ran a good race, finishing fast on the extreme outside. Aransas got an easy ride. Coburn made little or no effort in the stretch. Chanson was dull of speed and dropped far out of it in a jiffy after the start.

Scratched—Columbian Knight, 106.
The Esmond, show, 2 to 5. Gracchi, show, 3 to 5. Arigato, show, 4 to 1. Aransas, show, out.

Winner—B. c. by Oddfellow—Chantress.
Went to post at 2:50. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won well in hand; second cleverly. The other two were driving. The Rush is a sprinter of more than ordinary quality and in track record time, won like a gentleman. At a fast pace in the first part, he was fighting for his head and could have gone to the front at any time. Sevoy was a good horse today. Early in the morning he ran away five furlongs in 1:01%. Trainer Robertson tried to get him excused on this account, but was unable to do so. The gelding did not have a hard race, consequently it should not have hurt him in the least. Isaline did about all that was expected of her. After showing a fast half, Minyon stopped. She is a useful filly, but was outclassed here.

Scratched—25017 Andes, 99.
Overweights—The Rush, 3; pounds.
Sevoy, show, out. Isaline, show, 1 to 2.

Winner—B. c. by Crescendo—Amida.
Went to post at 3:25. At post 4 minutes. Start fair. Won easily at the end after a mild drive; second and third were under full sail. Impromptu was given a flying start. He could have won, however, without this advantage. Impromptu bore in on Pirate's Queen on the backstretch, seriously interfering with the latter. Davison had to pull up Pirate's Queen to keep her from going down. After this Impromptu had everything his own way, but to make sure Martin shook the colt up a trifle at the head of the stretch. Zacatoso over-raced himself. He was ridden to perfection and this accounts for it. Free Lance ran to his mark. Red Apple did not. The latter seems to be handled most inconsistently of late. Little Singer made up much ground in the stretch. It was a most ordinary lot.

Scratched—25019 Tillie W., 111; 24632 Sunro, 96; 24982 John Grigsby, 112; (24734) Chauncey Fisher, 113; 24805 Phidias, 113; 24944 Oxnard, 113; 24842 Lydia S., 107.

Winner—Br. g. by Aloha—Virgie.
Went to post at 3:50. Off at the first break to a good start. Won in a mild drive; second under keen pressure. It was a beautiful race to look at. The pair raced on about even terms all the way and each was ridden to perfection. Robert Waddell plainly showed his superiority over any three-year-old that has performed here so far. He is a race horse pure and simple and pulled up as playful as a kitten. Operator is not to be sneered at. He is a grand looker, has fine action, but not up to Robert Waddell's form. The race although not a fast one was a good one.

Winner—B. f. by Badge—Lucasta.
Went to post at 4:20. At post 9 minutes. Start good for all but Plead. Won ridden out; the next four were driving. Birdie D. was the best and won without much urging. She was fortunate in getting away fully in her stride, and after outrunning Ida V., had everything her own way. Ida V. found the route too long and was staggering at the end. Coburn seemed unable to hold El Caney straight and the gelding swerved badly in the stretch. He seems to be a bad horse. About was coming stoutly at the end. So was Plead, who got a wretched ride. Timms left the post pulling up and took the filly almost to the outside fence on the first turn. The boy displayed the most glaring incompetency. Woodstick showed little or no speed. If Maryland Reserve had any chance at all, he was handicapped by the ride Dibble gave him.

Scratched—(25016) Excelsior, 110; 24768 Shunt Up, 100.
Birdie D., show, 1 to 3. El Caney, show, evens. Ida V., show, 3 to 2. Plead, 9 to 20.

Winner—Ch. g. by Pirate of Penzance—Mary Winifred.
Went to post at 4:55. At post 7 minutes. Start good. Won driven out; the next four were driving to the limit. Hosi proved to be the best of a bad lot. He got a hustling ride and evidently surprised himself with the speed he had. Golden Scepter made one strong bid at the sixteenth post and then hung. Barring accidents Ollie J. would have had a good chance to beat Hosi. She was jammed into the fence and almost thrown at the start and had a rough journey all the way. Dugan, on Old Mike, was the cause of much interference at the start. He broke on the outside and cut directly across the track, impeding the entire lot with the exception of Hosi. In this melee Frank Ireland was thrown to his knees. Cancery suffered from bad racing luck

Winner—Ch. c. by Esher—The Princess.
Went to post at 2:35. At post 1 minute. Start good. The first five were all driving. Prince Escher was best but had to be shaken up at the finish. Elsie Barnes, off none too well, was coming very stoutly at the end. Beauty Book ran a good race. Donald Bain was interfered with on the backstretch. Little Veronica showed speed and improvement. Ethel Davis ran the first three furlongs like a quarter horse but tired badly from the effort. Donald Bain broke down; probably hopelessly.

She was beaten by the start as was Leflare. The Potentate finished very strong under an execrable ride.
